Who is Three Tarts Bakery?

Every brand has a story behind it. Three Tarts needs to tell theirs.

FROM PRODUCTS TO PURPOSE

Make the story part of the product.

Three Tarts Bakery is a unique business that is not only 28+ years old, but was founded by women founders. Customers want to know more about who is behind the delicious treats they are eating.

A message introducing Three Tarts.

THREE TARTS
BAKERY AND CAFE®

A strong brand can be captured in one sentence, whether on a website homepage or in a conversation with a curious customer.

> “Your North Shore neighborhood bakery for over 28 years, where everyone is greeted like family.”

Every pastry is a story worth sharing.

Short-form video is Three Tarts' biggest untapped opportunity to reach younger audiences.

Digital Content: Storytelling & Suggestions

Three Tarts isn’t another corporate-backed chain bakery. It’s a neighborhood favorite with 25+ years of history. Our content should spotlight the people and the treats that make it special.

Monthly/Weekly Item Spotlights

- Feature the local partners and suppliers (“Friends of the Bakery”) behind each item
- Take customers behind the scenes, from ingredients to oven to counter
- Use spotlights as an opportunity to announce weekly and seasonal specials

Made for people, by people

- A human aspect: Put faces to the brand: the founders, the staff, and the regulars who make Three Tarts feel like home
